City Council Passes $4.6 Million Budget 18% Increase Goes to Expanded Services

by Mary Lou Williamson

Council approved a $4.6 million budget for the City of Greenbelt on June 4 that will require an eight-cent increase in the tax rate on real personal property to $1.13 per $100 assessed valuation. This year's budget, up 18 percent over last year's offers more dollars through growth in the assessable base. But that equation is balanced by the need to expand and equip city services and personnel, albeit modestly, in order to continue to provide for this growing city the high quality Greenbelters have traditionally demanded.

"This budget reflects our new urban status," confirmed Greenbelt's newest member of council, Antoinette M. Bram. The new development and the major roads that crisscross the city have brought a significant growth in Greenbelt's daytime population. "My priorities," she said, "are security." She strongly supported the addition of two police officers over what the manager had originally proposed and the change from one full-time recreation coordinator (time split between two recreation centers) to two full-time personnel as requested by the recreation director. She favored having fully qualified, professional adults in charge of the centers at all times. She thanked the city staff and council for "helping me through my first budget."

Following the annual rite of budget approval — accomplished in less than 60 minutes — each of the members of council had an opportunity to make comments and each offered thanks to the city manager James K. Giese and staff.

Ed Putens was equally pleased with this year's budget process and its results. Council had arrived at attainable goals for the city to accomplish in the coming year. He thanked the handful of people who made up the audience.

This year's budget, commented Mayor Gil Weidenfeld, is a compromise of ideas coming from many directions. Using the need for more police resources as an example, Weidenfeld showed how the budget process helps council arrive at satisfactory decisions. Requests for additional police officers ranged widely—from two to 10. Because of the strongly voiced pleas from many sources—the Fraternal Order of Police, the chief and deputy chief and crime prevention groups — the manager's original proposal for adding two new officers this year was doubled. A workable compromise.

Weidenfeld called attention to this year's 39-cent drop in the county tax rate due to the tax-differential. (See separate story.) When offset by the eight-cent increase in the city's tax rate, he explained, Greenbelt taxpayers will still see a 31-cent decrease in their combined city-county tax rates. This amount, he pointed out, represents almost one-third of the current city tax rate. Next year city taxpayers should get a "further tax-differential decrease. They're only getting three-quarters this year."

Approval of the budget, however, was not unanimous. "I am not voting for this tax increase," said Richard R. Pilski. He voted against three individual items amounting to $38,000. The budget, he insisted, could have been reduced and the tax rate increase dropped by at least two cents, maybe three. Pilski voted against the entire budget.

Thomas X. White also came away less than satisfied. But he had wanted more, not less. On capital improvements, he asserted, White's idea but expressed concern that his proposal had not been presented before the public. The idea had first surfaced at council's final budget work session two weeks before formal approval. The proposal died for lack of a second.

General Fund Revenues

Greenbelt's assessable base for the real property tax has increased another 11.3 percent since last year and is up 38 percent over the past four years. Most of this growth has been commercial. The personal property assessable base has increased by 70 percent during those same four years. That is the tax paid by utilities and businesses.

Council increased the cabaret tax from 3 to 4 percent and anticipates increased revenues from the admissions tax. Pilski opposed the cabaret increase that hits such spots as Jaspers that ed, Greenbelt has been falling behind. He cited a litany of immediate needs: roads, North End School, development of the Northway ball fields complex, acquisition of green space, improvements to the municipal pool and the Attick Park. Because of the tax-differential, he said, council had had a one time opportunity to make a deeper commitment to capital improvements.

Each year council sets aside seven cents of the tax rate for capital improvements—primarily street repair and an assortment of other tasks, resurfacing tennis courts or reroofing the Youth Center. White asked council to up the ante this year to 10 cents.

There are many large capital expenditures that council would like to see financed through a bond issue over 20 years rather than through the annual budget. Council plans to present such a proposal to the voters sometime during the fiscal year. The other members of council wanted to pursue this course first. But White found that an iffy proposition. Council might or might not present a plan, the voters might or might not approve it and the bond market might or might not be good. Both Weidenfeld and Putens said they liked have dancing or entertainment. "They'll just pass that cost through to individuals in the community," he said.

Under grants from the county government, council added $5,000 expected, but not yet received, to pay for non-Greenbelt residents counseled at CARES.

There will be no increase again this year to the city's refuse collection customers.

Total revenues anticipated are 4,303,500. The budget will be balanced by using $314,800 of unappropriated surplus from previous years.

Q. When is a tax hike not a tax hike? A. This year!

by Mary Lou Williamson

Council approved an 8-cent increase in the city tax rate which Greenbelt homeowners must pay for the coming year. At first blush a rather large hike in the real property tax, bigger than any in recent memory. What, you might ask, has happened to Greenbelt's usually savvy city council? Has it lost its collective senses? The answer is, of course, "No." An unusual factor this year tells the story.

The tax differential legislation passed by the Maryland Assembly in 1983 now requires the county government to stop charging (taxing) the residents of Greenbelt, among many other towns and cities, for services which the county does not provide—police protection, snow removal, street repair, youth services. In Greenbelt the list is long. These services are provided by our city government, and our taxpayers, traditionally have been double-taxed. But thanks to years of work by Maryland's municipalities (with Greenbelt in the forefront), the county can no longer get a free lunch on municipal homeowners.

In fairness to the county, the problem has been dealt with, though in a minor way, over the past several years. By a set formula, the county has annually "reimbursed" the city by a lump sum. This year it would have been an amount equal to eight cents on the city's tax rate. Under that arrangement the money went to the city. This year's arrangement is very different. The funds will no longer go to the city. Since it is the taxpayer who has been double taxed, it is the taxpayer who will receive the relief in the form of a lower tax rate by the county—lower by a whopping 39 cents.

Back to the eight-cent city tax increase. The eight cents will cover the amount the city will no longer receive from the county.

Now, follow this: the eight-cent tax hike keeps the city's tax-rate even for this year and the taxpayer gets a real break.

Greenbelt Pool to Close For at Least Two Days

Plumbing repairs will necessitate the closing of the Greenbelt Municipal Swimming Pool for a minimum of two working days. The project is contingent on the delivery of the repair parts and the contractor's scheduling. As of this date, the pool will tentatively be closed on Monday and Tuesday, June 18 and 19. As soon as possible, this schedule will be verified. Notices will be posted and announcements made at the pool.

It has been arranged for all 1984 Greenbelt season pass holders to use the Ellen Linson Swimming Pool (Calvert Road Complex, 5211 Calvert Road, College Park) during whatever period of time that the city's pool has to be closed. Greenbelt pass holders must present their individual passes to the cashier at the Ellen Linson Pool. They will be honored subject to the Ellen Linson Pool's maximum acceptable capacity. The Calvert Road Complex's operating hours are from 12 noon to 8:30 p.m.

Swim Team News

The Greenbelt Barracudas season begins Saturday, June 16 with an unofficial meet at New Carrollton. Swimmers and parents will leave Greenbelt pool at noon. Practice begins at 7 a.m. weekdays, newcomers welcome.

THANKS

To the Editor:

The weather was beautiful, and the Arts & Crafts Fair Saturday, June 2 was a pleasant mix of crafts being demonstrated and sold, music filling Roosevelt Center Mall, and Greenbelters young and old renewing friendships and chatting about Greenbelt then and now. It was a happy event because of the craftspeople, who donated to the Greenbelt Cultural Arts Center a total of $205, and the musicians—The Stony Run String Band (who played a third time in place of John Haugh who was ill), Beth Tavanello and Manday Green.

A number of people mentioned that they might like to contact some craftsperson at a later date. Names and phone numbers can be had by calling me at 345-2454.

Thank you, neighbors, for your support.

STICKER NEEDED TO PARK AT LAKE PARKING LOT

Parking restrictions were imposed several years ago at the Greenbelt Lake lower parking lot. The lot is reserved for cars with a permit sticker only. Unless the sign is displayed on the left rear bumper of the car, the owner is subject to a fine.

To obtain a permit a city resident needs to fill out an application form, pay a nominal fee ($1.00) to defray the cost of the permit processing and then place the sticker on the left rear bumper of the vehicle. The permits are available at the city offices.

City Council set aside this area for permit parking to keep the lake accessible to citizens of the city. To avoid paying fines, citizens should be sure to obtain and use a sticker.

Amberg at Utopia

Alan Amberg, founder and producer of A-Plus Productions, brings his group to the Utopia Theater on Saturday, June 23, for an evening of Rodgers and Hart music, beginning at 8 p.m.

Amberg, son of Mat and Rose Amberg of Hillside Road, is a June graduate in theater at the University of Maryland. His "Sing for Your Supper" program is a combination of actors and musicians recreating Rodgers and Hart musicals. Brian Choper, a sophomore at Prince Georges Community College and son of Eva and Jordan Choper of Northway, is director of the music and drummer for the production.

Amberg is the director of the Theater Camp at the Jewish Community Center in Rockville this summer besides his work with A-Plus Productions.

Room visitation will be a part of the closing program.

For more information call the church office between 8:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m. weekdays at 474-4212. The church is located on the corner of Crescent and Greenhill Roads.

Francine Nisenoff

Francine Nisenoff of Edmonston Road died on May 26 after a long battle against cancer.

A volunteer for numerous Democratic Party political campaigns, Mrs. Nisenoff also spent many hours in helping establish and in improving the enforcement of handicapped parking in the Greenbelt area. She appeared before City Council to urge a higher fine for those without special stickers who parked in areas marked "Handicapped."

She was, with her husband Martin and children Jennifer, Jeffrey and Leonard, a member of Mishkan Torah congregation. She was an avid Bingo player at St. Hugh's, the Greenbelt and Berwyn Heights Fire and Rescue Squad houses, and the American Legion.

After services at the Stein Funeral Home in Takoma Park, Mrs. Nisenoff was buried at Mt. Lebanon Cemetery, Adelphi. The family suggests donations in her memory to the American Cancer Society.

In Memoriam

In 1975, Charles T. McDonald became the ninth president of the Golden Age Club of Greenbelt. He was always alert for anything that would be for the betterment of the Club. He was humorous, too, as shown by this anecdote in the minutes of 1975.

When he returned from a Kentucky reunion of about 100 McDonalds, he was asked about being a Kentucky Colonel. He said, "You can't be a Kentucky Colonel unless you know horseflesh and beautiful women. I know nothing about horseflesh — but beautiful women, that's another story."

He was also a gold card member of the National Council of Senior Citizens. He attended all Golden Age Club anniversary parties until the last one—when he was ill. He will be missed by the members of the Golden Age Club of Greenbelt.

Cultural Arts Center Needs Items for Flea Market

Friends of the Greenbelt Cultural Arts Center are urged to set aside useable personal and household items as they do their annual house-cleaning, because the Center will have a table space at the July 14 Flea Market, reveals Gail Neumann, fundraising chairwoman for the Center. Details of the sale will appear in a future issue of the News Review.

Anyone wishing to reserve a table space for the July market should call 441-8770 to leave a name and phone number for Ann Pisano, the market organizer.

Grace Braden

Grace Pence Braden, widow of Greenbelt's first city manager, died June 10 in Winter Park, Fla., where she had lived in retirement after the death of her husband Roy in 1951.

With Rex Tugwell, Roy Braden planned Greenbelt and set up its council-city manager form of government. The Bradens moved here from Arlington, Va., where he had been city manager. They were charter members of the Community Church, and Mrs. Braden was a charter member of the Woman's Club. They left Greenbelt near the end of World War II when he became city manager in Hopewell, Va. and later in Richland, Washington, where he died.

Born in Pence, West Virginia (named after her father), Mrs. Braden was a teacher. Her only surviving relatives are a cousin in Arlington and two nieces of Mr. Braden.

Those wishing to attend 10 a.m. graveside services should meet at 9:30 a.m. on Friday, June 15, at the Administration Building at Arlington Cemetery.

BUDGET APPROVED

up $710,100 from last year, or 18 percent. Classified employees will receive an average pay increase of five percent. The cost-of-living index rose last year by five percent. About $80,000 has been earmarked for word and data processing equipment throughout the departments.

(1) General Government ($488,200)

Although he didn't ask, the city manager was given funds to hire a part-time administrative assistant ($10,000). Funds were also provided for holding a bond issue referendum ($4,500) and the 50th Anniversary ($5,000, up from $3,500). The Maryland Municipal League will cost the city slightly less than expected for membership.

(2) Public Safety ($1,262,600)

Four new patrolmen will be hired, two in July and two in January ($65,000), also a dispatcher. A study of the department ($20,000) is planned as part of the coming change in command. Council first set aside $50,000 to implement the findings of the study, but then used $25,000 to fund the extra two officers. Additional funds, if needed, could come in next year's budget. Council added another $2,000 for training programs for an expanding department. Four emergency-equipped patrol cars will be purchased. The animal control budget is up 180 percent over last year, reflecting increased community concern and the rabies scare.

(3) Public Works ($880,300)

This year's funding is higher than budgeted last year, but slightly under what was actually spent. Council added $11,200 to purchase a backhoe this year instead of next, and $3,000 for an engineering study of the municipal pool.

(4) Social Services—Greenbelt CARES ($128,500)

CARES' increase was held to 1.1 percent—the smallest change of any city department. A $5,000 grant is expected, though not yet received, from the county government in recognition of the cost to the city of counseling non-residents. The funds will be used to offset a portion of the city's share of supporting CARES. The State also funds part of the program.

(5) Recreation and Parks ($759,100)

Two new full-time recreation coordinators will replace part-time personnel ($15,000), also a part-time office assistant will be hired ($6,700). The bus for special trips budgeted for last year is on order and expected any time. This bus will be shared on an experimental basis to provide intra-city transportation. An extra $1,000 in landscape supplies will purchase trees to screen the city warehouse from the new Capital Office Park buildings across Kenilworth Avenue.

Contributions

Contributions the city makes to other recreation organizations are as follows:

Organizations	Contributions
Aquatic Boosters	1,500
Winter Swim Coach	450
Greenbelt Concert Band	750
Band Director	2,000
Greenbelt Little League	4,375
Greenbelt Running Club	325
Greenbelt Tennis Assoc.	400
Greenbelt Cultural Arts	3,500
Golden Age Club	1,500
Babe Ruth	1,000

Total Contributions $15,800

Two organizations did not ask for funds this year, the Greenbelt Boys and Girls Club and Springhill Lake Baseball. A new organization, Babe Ruth, was added and Greenbelt Little League received extra funds for its new Tee Ball program.

Miscellaneous

Employee retirement benefits continue to be some of the largest line items in the budget. The city's contributions to these costs have skyrocketed since 1981. The city's share of the accrued li-bility of the State Retirement System, a whopping, annual $153,000, did not start this year as expected. The state legislature delayed a year in order to give municipalities more time to begin to raise the funds. Council has been putting aside money toward these payments for three years. Funds to be paid out this year will be: social security, $146,800; state retirement, $161,500; and reserve for accrued liability, $76,900.

CONSIDERING A CHANGE IN RESIDENCE?

There are three key elements to consider:

- A) Your needs: things you positively have to have.
- B) Your wants: things you'd like to have, but don't necessarily need.
- C) Your qualifications:
 - 1) Your initial investment (cash to move in)
 - 2) Your total income (gross yearly income)
 - 3) Your debt service (total indebtedness)

I would like the opportunity to discuss with you how we can combine these three factors to assist you and your family in achieving your housing goals both within Greenbelt and the metropolitan area - of course with no obligation.

Variety Show Opens At Utopia Theater

"Henri . . . and company," a six-member variety program led by Henri Ellison, opens Friday, June 15, at 8:15 p.m. for a two-evening run at the Utopia Theater.

Ellison was the first to bring a variety show to the Utopia. This is the fifth appearance of his Peppermint Blue Productions group.

The 90-minute show will feature songs, dances, comedy and drama by Ellison and musicians on keyboards, electric bass, guitar and drums. The multi-talented group will join their voices for a nostalgic nod to the World War II years, but the program will range from "tap dance to flashdance" and "from Gilbert & Sullivan to Gilbert O'Sullivan," comments Ellison. He plans to repeat some crowd pleasers from earlier programs.

NOTICE OF CHARTER AMENDMENT (ANNEXATION)

At its regular meeting, held on May 14, 1984, the City Council of Greenbelt, Maryland, adopted Charter Amendment Resolution Number 1984-1 (Resolution No. 564), and the following title of the Resolution is a fair summary of the amendment:

Resolution of the City of Greenbelt, Maryland, enlarging the corporate boundaries of the City of Greenbelt under the provisions of Article 23A, Section 19(b)(2) of the Annotated Code of the State of Maryland, by annexing certain lands and property bounded on all sides by real property presently within the corporate limits of the City of Greenbelt, such lands commonly known as the properties of Elinor M. Seger and the Holy Cross Lutheran Church, and as more fully described in plat of annexation prepared by John D. Emler & Associates, P.A., dated March 1984, all located adjacent to the intersection of the Baltimore-Washington Parkway and Capital Beltway (Interstate 95), near Greenbelt Road (Route Md. 193); and further providing for the special treatment of taxable real property by the City in the area annexed from the effective date of annexation until such time as said property is reformed, or its ownership or its character or its usage changes from that in effect at the time of this annexation, whichever change shall occur first.

On May 14, 1984 a public hearing was held by the City Council of Greenbelt on the above resolution, and the hearing was advertised and held in all due form according to the laws of the State of Maryland. The enclave is being annexed under the provisions of Section 19(b)(2) of Article 23A of the Annotated Code of Maryland, which provides that a resolution of annexation under this paragraph is not subject to the referendum provisions of subsection (f) pertaining to petition for referendum by residents of area to be annexed. Charter Amendment Resolution No. 1984-1 shall become effective 45 days after passage, which shall be the 28th day of June, 1984.

A copy of the above Charter Amendment Resolution No. 1984-1 is posted in the Greenbelt Municipal Building — Edgar L. Smith Wing, and copies may also be obtained from the City Clerk, 25 Crescent Road, Greenbelt, Maryland, Telephone: 474-3870 or 474-8000.

Police Blotter

According to a Greenbelt police department spokesman, a raccoon was shot by the police last week on Lakeside Drive. The animal showed signs of attacking when cornered and was therefore destroyed. However, examination showed that the raccoon was not rabid.

Greenbelt officers, responding to a request from the U.S. Park Police, assisted at a major traffic scene at the parkway and Rd. 202 on May 29. Five cars were involved. On May 31, Greenbelt officers assisted the Prince Georges County Police in a hit and run case which occurred in Berwyn Heights. The Greenbelt officers apprehended the suspect and turned him over to County police for charging.

On May 31 at 9:41 p.m. two residents in the 8100 block of Lakecrest Dr. were arrested after police responded to complaints about a loud party and the men refused to quiet the party down. They were charged with disturbing the peace.

On June 1 at 10:43 p.m. two large groups consisting of 25-30 persons were involved in a fight in the area of 6000 Greenbelt Rd. Some of the participants had weapons. Officers broke up the fight.

On May 29 two non-residents were charged with possession of a controlled dangerous substance. They were incarcerated in lieu of bond.

Two non-resident juveniles were arrested for theft in the Greenway Shopping Center on May 31.

During the period May 29-June 2, 23 accidents occurred in the city; five of these involved personal injury. During the same Officer John Lann discussed with CARES staff the formation of a program to offer assistance and support to the victims of crimes through community resources.

Congratulations to Ann Pas-kalides, principal of Cherokee Lane Elementary School, on being named one of 15 "Outstanding Educators" in the Prince Georges School System. She was honored at a dinner held on May 24 at the La Fontaine Bleu restaurant in Lanham. Ann and husband Tom live on Lakeside Drive. Among 11 "Outstanding Employees" of the system is Cora Fletcher, a secretary at Magnolia Elementary School.

A speedy recovery to Rose Amberg of Hillside Road. She is recovering at Prince Georges Hospital.

Congratulations to Rev. Kenneth and Katherine Buker of Parkway Road as they celebrate their 65th wedding anniversary on June 17. Rev. Buker, Greenbelt's Outstanding Citizen in 1976, preached at the Community Church here in 1938 and 1939, but the couple didn't move to Greenbelt until 1964. We are happy to report that the couple are improving after recent eye surgeries. Their daughter, Barbara Burgoon, lives on Ridge Road, and they have a son Kenneth in North Carolina and a daughter Joyce Luckett in Florida. The Bukers will be honored at a coffee hour at the University Christian Church, Adelphi Road, University Park.

I provide in-home service in this neighborhood 3 days each week as well as some evenings and weekends. I'm bonded, licensed and top rated for over 25 years. You can count on my estimates and prompt fair service. I always call before visiting, carry more than 5 times the normal inventory of parts, and can (almost) always repair your Color TV IN YOUR HOME, ON ONE TRIP. I repair HI FI'S and VCR's also. I buy broken color Zenith portables. Call with model and chassis no's. from back of set.

Thanks for reading my AD. Please save it.

Father's Day
Gift

This 12-speed is the best value lightweight bicycle in its class. Maybe that's why it's the most popular bike we sell. Or maybe it's because of its lightweight Chrome-Moly frame and racy styling. But, then, it could be Le Tour's light alloy rims with quick release wheels for easy transport and storage that makes this our best seller.

Regardless of the reason, Le Tour gives you the sleek good looks you want at a price you can afford—and it's only available from Schwinn. Come and take a look—but be prepared to join the crowd of Le Tour fans!
